Gray Matter 1999

1999 Gray Matter DEDICATION

Patricia L. Adams, M.D.

For her dedication to her patients, colleagues, students and to the art of medicine, the 1999 Gray Matter editors proudly dedicate this publication to Patricia L. Adams, M.D.

Dr. Patricia Adams received her B.S. degree from Duke University in 1965 and her M.D. degree from the Bowman Gray School of Medicine in 1974. She then completed her residency in Internal Medicine at the University of Alabama Affiliated Hospitals in 1977. She served her fellowship in Nephrology at the University of Alabama from 1977-1979. Dr. Adams joined the faculty of the Bowman Gray School of Medicine in 1979 as an Assistant Professor of Medicine. She was appointed Deputy Associate Dean of Student Affairs in 1987 and became Associate Dean the next year. Dean Adams was made Professor of Medicine in 1994. In addition to many intramural responsibilities, including past memberships on the Admissions Committee, House Staff Executive Committee, Faculty Executive Council and as Associate Chief of Staff, Dean Adams has served as President of the South-Eastern Organ Procurement Foundation and as a member of the Editorial Board for Annals of Internal Medicine. As a Dean of Student Affairs she is compassionate and fair. She has written countless Dean's Letters for senior medical students and serves as an advisor to an appreciative student body. Her professional memberships, publications and honors and awards are extensive. In her free time she enjoys traveling, tennis and skiing.

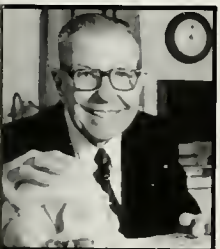

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

David Biddulph, Ph.D. began his tenure at the medical school on January 1, 1970. He earned his BS degree from Utah State University in 1963. He completed his post-graduate work at the University of Illinois College of Medicine in 1968. He also completed a fellowship at the University of North Carolina School of Medicine in 1970. Dr. Biddulph's open, friendly personality has always been appreciated by his students. He is always readily available to guide the beginning medical student in the gross anatomy or microbiology laboratory. Dr. Biddulph will become emeritus faculty in July, 1999.

Ronald Mack, M.D. earned his BS degree from Loyola University of Chicago in 1950. He then attended Stritch School of Medicine of Loyola University receiving his MD in 1954. His internship year was served at Cook County Hospital. He then completed his residency in Pediatrics at Mercy Hospital and Medical Center in 1957. He came to Bowman Gray School of Medicine as an Associate Professor of Pediatrics in 1975. His teaching experience, committee memberships, and publications are numerous. In addition, he is a world famous toxicologist. To his students, Dr. Mack is an accomplished historian. Dr. Mack will become emeritus faculty in July, 1999.

Charles McCreight, Ph.D. has taught untold numbers of students in his forty-seven years of service to the medical school. He is a graduate of George Washington University (BS '48, MS '50, PhD '54). His tenure at Bowman Gray began in July of 1952. He became a faculty member in 1954, and emeritus faculty in 1983. He has continued to teach full time in the gross anatomy lab until recently. Besides being a world class anatomist and historian, he is famous to students for his wonderful Christmas parties and as a pianist. Generations of students owe him a debt of gratitude for the gentle wisdom he has unselfishly shared.

Beverly Green Penn began working in the Office of Medical Education of the Bowman Gray School of Medicine on April 9, 1992. She was also Secretary to the Ethics Committee. Beverly married in November of 1997. She has been in declining health since April, 1998. Beverly always loved photography and the students she helped so much. This was in great evidence by the bulletin board she constructed on E-floor outside the Office of Medical Education. In her spare time, she was a seamstress and played Bingo. Beverly's presence is greatly missed by her colleagues and students, who are also her friends.

In Memoriam

Doris Spagh began working for the medical school twenty-five years ago on October 1, 1973. Over the years, she touched the lives of over 5,000 students. She was the Accounts Receivable Supervisor in the Cashier's Office. Doris passed away on January 23, 1999, after a brief illness. She is survived by her husband, Jesse; two daughters, Teresa and Daphne; three grandchildren, Justin, Erica and Joshua and her cat, "Ivan the Terrible". Doris' favorite things were springtime, flowers and snow. She is missed by her colleagues and the many grateful students she helped.

Award for Teaching Excellence

Awarded by the Academic Faculty, Medical School
Administration and Student Body

Edward F. Haponik, M.D.

Dr. Haponik is a Professor of Internal Medicine in the Section of Pulmonary/Critical Care Medicine. He graduated from the Bowman Gray School of Medicine in 1974 and completed his internship and residency at the North Carolina Baptist Hospital in 1978. His fellowship in Pulmonary/Critical Care was completed at Johns Hopkins University in 1980. Dr. Haponik is best known to students for his creative teaching of breath sounds, smoking cessation and sleep apnea. He is an accomplished pianist and performs for faculty/student talent shows. Dr. Haponik is dynamic, compassionate, and kind, and we are proud to award him for his excellence.

Charles B. Clark Memorial Award for Outstanding Service to the Senior Class

Lynn C. Snyder

Lynn Snyder began working for the Bowman Gray School of Medicine on October 1, 1976. In December of 1997, she was appointed Registrar. Lynn has been instrumental to the Senior Class in orchestrating third and fourth year clerkships and in helping with applications for residency positions and the Match. Lynn is also a great friend to all medical students and is our surrogate Mom. She works tirelessly and selflessly to make our medical school experience a rich and satisfying one. She resides in Winston-Salem with her husband, Jim, and her two children, Lori and Michael.

Charles B. Clark was diagnosed with cancer before matriculating with the Bowman Gray School of Medicine Class of 1992. Despite treatments that left him weak and ill, he attended class and labs. He was well-loved by his classmates, the faculty and staff. This award was created to honor his memory and is given to a student, faculty or staff member for their service to the class.

Dead poets, philosophs, priests,
Martyrs, artists, inventors, governments long since,
Language-shapers on other shores,
Nations once powerful, now reduced, withdrawn, or desolate.

I dare not proceed till I respectfully credit you what you have left wafted hither.

I have perused it, own it is admirable, (moving awhile among it.)

Think nothing can ever be greater, nothing can ever deserve more than it deserves,

Regarding it all intently a long while, then dismissing it,
I stand in my own place with my own day here.

This year, six students participated in the Summer Medical Institute in Philadelphia: Tonya Arscott-Mills, Jennifer Brown, Stella Cline, Paul Murphy, Anne Marie Puckhaber, and Larry Ver Hoef.

Tokai Exchange Program

Mayumi receives the Certificate of Appreciation from Dr. Watts.

Mayumi's farewell party

Masa rotated through several departments with the third year students, such as Alex Davit, MS-III.

The Deacons always play better when you're wearing your hats.

In 1990, an exchange program was established between Wake Forest University School of Medicine and Tokai University in Isehara, Japan. Tokai students spend six months at Wake Forest while our students study two months at Tokai. The program was established to promote international understanding and exchange of ideas between the two medical schools. It was our honor to host Mayumi Sasaki and Masahiro Murayama at our school this year.

In keeping with the spirit of the exchange program, several faculty from Tokai Medical School visited the Medical Center this year to observe our third year clinical rotations.

International Health Experiences

For the fourth year in a row, Wake Forest students have traveled to Mexico to set up rural health care clinics. Last year's participants were: Brad Fouts, Brent Powers, Heather Powers, Karla Santamana, Sarah Truong, Mary Morehead, Kerry Rotundi, Mana Rudisill, Nina McFarlane, Jennifer Kim, Brett MacLean, Lindsay Seawright, Nathan Dean, Eric Coates, Dwight Bates, Bridget Busch, Paul Murphy, Brad Tewes, Jonathan Millard, and Ed Choi. The group was led by Jay Traynham, HO-I and Chris Herman, MD.

Jenn Brown, MS IV spend two months at Rusitu Mission Hospital in Eastern Zimbabwe. She is seen here with Evelyn and baby Vengai.

Julia Roos, MS IV was an exchange student at Tokai University School of Medicine in Isehara, Japan for two months. Here she poses with "Doc" and fellow Tokai students at Tokyo Disneyland.

Bridgette Busch, MS II travelled to Belize with Youth With a Mission, Mercy Ministries.

Alex Davit, MS III spent two weeks working with an Operation Smile team in Brazil.

Colophon

The 1999 Gray Matter was published by Jostens Publishing, Winston-Salem, North Carolina. The cover is embossed on black matte lexitone material with three applied colors, pale gold, black and gray. All senior names are foil stamped in gold. The endsheets are Silvertip made from recycled paper and are printed differently front and back with senior autographs in black ink. There are 228 pages printed throughout on 80 pound matte paper. There are seven full color pages and the remainder are printed black and white. Seven hundred and twenty five copies were produced.

All portraits were taken by the Department of Biomedical Communications of the Wake Forest University Baptist Medical Center, Winston-Salem, North Carolina.

Please address correspondence to Gray Matter, care of the Office of Student Services, Wake Forest University School of Medicine, Medical Center Boulevard, Winston-Salem, North Carolina, 27157. Telephone 336 716 4272

Congratulations

Physician's Oath

Now being admitted to the profession of medicine,

I solemnly pledge to consecrate my life to the service of humanity.

I will give respect and gratitude to my deserving teachers.

I will practice medicine with conscience and dignity.

The health and life of my patients will be my first consideration.

I will hold in confidence all that my patient confides in me.

I will maintain the honor and the noble traditions of the medical profession.

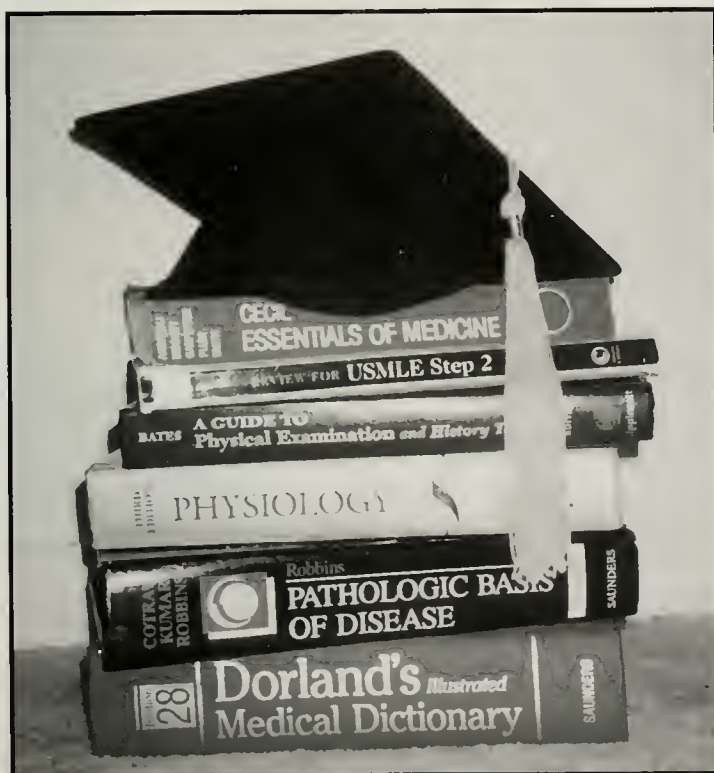

My colleagues will be as my family.

I will allow no considerations to intervene between my duty and my patient.

I will maintain the utmost respect for human life.

I will, under all circumstances, use my knowledge in the service of humanity.

These promises I make freely and upon my honor.

Congratulations

Dr. Nermine Morcos

You have touched our hearts and souls with your strength and determination.

We are so proud of you and your accomplishments.

The path of your life has yet to be engrained in stone.

We know you will chisel through it with greatness.

How lucky we are to have you for our daughter,
sister, granddaughter, niece, and cousin.

God has given you many gifts. Of these, one we celebrate is your determination. No one needs to look beyond your accomplishments to see that gift in
you. May you become like a flourishing hidden tree.

Look at this rocker
ya know who she is?
All through school she
scored like a wiz
From the very beginning
according to Spock
She had what it takes to be a great doc.
At last school is over
so how do we feel?
As proud as can be
we just want to squeal.

We love you,
Mama and Daddy

To all the people who made this book possible...

The Editors of the 1999 Gray Matter would like to extend an extra thank you to all of the people who sacrificed their time to make this publication possible. A special thank you goes to all the people who stepped forward in our hour of need and helped us make our deadlines.

Thanks to Dr. Patricia Adams, Lynn Snyder, Jo Ann Mount, Lou Davis, John Lord, Will Willner, Linda Bell, Gerry Todd, Margaret Ann Pons, Emily Pons, Pat Roos, Kevin Buckley, Mike Finlon, Shubie Saksena, Wendy Won-Ting Chi, Radhika Jayaraj, Elena Daniel, Christine Hanna, Sherman Lee, Suzanne Miller, Amy Baruch, Brad Brinkley, Jane Hege, Ginger Graham, Kelly-Marie Rubeck, Michael Chua and John "Bogie" Fletcher.

And to all of the people who loaned us great photos, we really appreciate it. Your contributions made this book a reality.

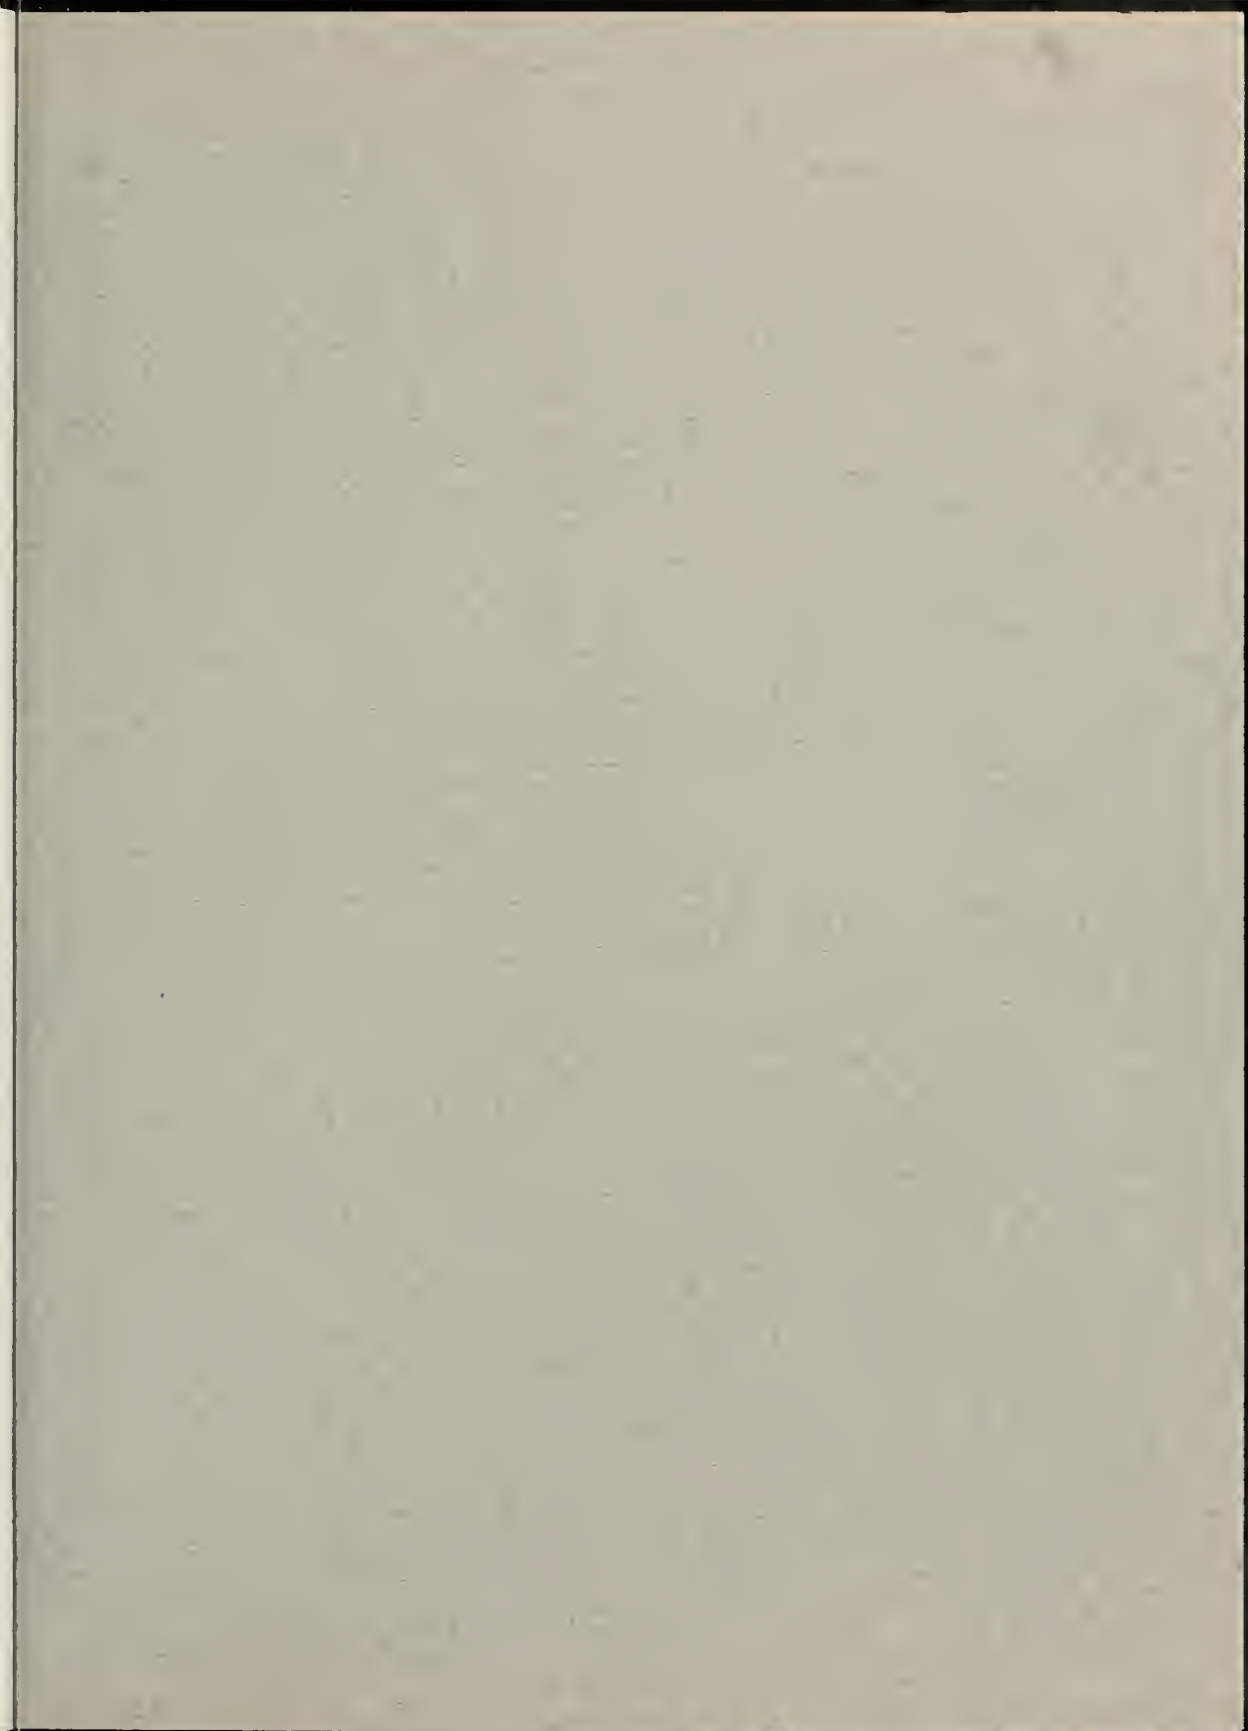

Finally, thank you to all the people who offered to help and gave us encouragement.
